SPELD Membership.

Answers throughout the year.

Answers for Dyslexia and other Learning Disabilities.

For over 40 years SPELD Victoria has offered assistance and support to countless children and adults with learning disabilities, their parents/carers, employers, educators and other professionals.

SPELD's core objective is to ensure people with learning disabilities are recognised, accepted and embraced within all aspects of the community, in order that they are able to realise their full potential.

As a not-for-profit organisation your membership dollar also makes it possible for SPELD to continue to provide Answers to all concerned.

THE answerseries

Answers at a special membership rate.

The Answer Series is a program of conferences, courses, seminars and workshops that provide answers to a variety of issues relating to dyslexia and other learning disabilities, looking at them from many perspectives.

Our members receive a discounted rate on attendance at any SPELD Answer Series conference, seminar or workshop.

Answers at your doorstep.

All members receive on-going information throughout the year, including schedules on upcoming events, newsletters, as well as the SPELD Bulletin.

The Bulletin provides updates and articles relevant to learning difficulties on a bi-annual basis.

SPELD's Australian Journal of Dyslexia and other Learning Disabilities is available to all school members, as well as those individuals who choose the Individual plus Journal membership package.

An annual publication, the Journal provides important insights and practical strategies for parents, educators, specialists and other professionals that offer support.

SPELD's Resource Library - Answers when you need them.

SPELD members have exclusive rights to borrow from the Resource Library which offers over 400 general, parent and teacher reference books, articles and workbooks on maths/numeracy, spelling, reading, writing/ language and study skills. Members also receive exclusive rights on hiring DVDs, tapes and videos.

Answers for all needs.

Individual, Individual plus Journal and Corporate/Organisation membership packages are available.

The Corporate/

Organisation Membership package entitles up to 10 people to access discounted membership rates for any Answer Series conference, seminar, and ICT workshop/session.

These members also receive three copies of membership materials, the bi-annual SPELD Bulletin and annual Journal.
